

I find that K-LOVE is a big part of my day, offers wholesome programming and music and I know many others in my area feel the same way. They broadcast across the country, as I have heard them when traveling. It is wonderful to have this available no matter where I am. Please preserve this valuable service.